Earthly Mirrors of a Heavenly Reality

“Our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms” (Ephesians 6:12).

In Bad Dads of the Bible, Roland Warren writes, “Over the years, God has shown me that the attack on the institution of fatherhood and the strategy to make fathers unloving and ineffective is a primary goal of Satan himself. Why? Because if fathers are distant, distracted, disconnected, or even abusive, children will believe all fathers are this way, even a heavenly Father who claims to love them unconditionally. But this is clearly not God’s plan. His desire is for all fathers to reflect aspects of His character, an earthly mirror of a heavenly reality.”

Matthew 7:9–11 illustrates this quite clearly. Jesus asks, “Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask Him!”

From God’s perspective, fathers are created to imitate His goodness. In fact, if this were not the case, the entire analogy Jesus used loses its meaning. But there is more. When you contemplate the symbolism in Jesus’ examples in Matthew 7, a deeper meaning, especially for fathers, is evident. For example, consider the comparison of bread to a stone. Especially to a small child, a piece of bread and a small stone may look the same. But they are not the same. Bread was, and remains today, a key source of physical life and sustenance, and it represents spiritual life as Christ’s body, which was broken for the salvation of the world. A stone, especially in the time of Christ, could be a tool of destruction and death. Remember, stones were used to martyr Stephen.

Now consider the symbolism in the comparison of a fish to a serpent. The fish is an early symbol of the Christian faith. Of note, Jesus’ first disciples were fishermen whom He transformed into “fishers of men.” These men fervently shared the good news that salvation is available for all. In contrast, the serpent is the symbol of the Evil One who seeks to thwart the gospel and lead humankind down a path of destruction and death.

What Jesus is saying in this passage is that fathers should make sure their children have both physical and spiritual life. Godly fathers are to provide a pathway and a connection to God’s saving grace, because when they give their children “good gifts,” it makes it much easier for children to connect with a heavenly Father who gave the best gift of all — His Son. So when their children hear, “Dear heavenly Father,” it’s winsome rather than worrisome.

Maybe you had a wonderful dad and have a lifetime of happy memories (and a few not-great ones). But maybe you’ve lost your dad. Maybe your dad tried his best but wasn’t a great father. Maybe your dad was a heartless, cruel man who did things that scarred you. Maybe he was just a

MUSIC DEPARTMENT NEWS JUNE/July 2022

Dave is Director of Athletics & Activities at the American International School in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia and Maysa is Director of Human Resources there. We all plan to be together for the 4th of July to celebrate the holiday and have some very special family time. It will be a great gathering and the first 4th of July with our new grand dog, Waylon who joined Chris' family two months ago. He is the sweetest Golden Retriever puppy ever. ## Nurturing Faith

June 5 – Day of Pentecost: Read: John 14:8-17 In John 14, Jesus promises his disciples that if they love him and follow his commandments, the Father will send an Advocate to be with them forever. As believers, we also have an Advocate we call the Holy Spirit. On this Pentecost Sunday, consider what that means to have an advocate with you forever. How does that affect the way you live, speak, and act?

June 12 – Trinity Sunday: Read: John 16:12-15 On this Trinity Sunday, we read in John the role of the Holy Spirit in the lives of the disciples. The Spirit leads all believers in the way of God’s truth and guides believers to behold God’s glory and might. What does this mean for you? How do you recognize God’s glory and might? Do you allow the Spirit to lead you in the ways of God, or do you choose to follow your own paths in this life on earth?

June 19 – Second Sunday after Pentecost: Read Luke 8:26-39 In Luke, we see Jesus met by a man filled with demons. He calls to Jesus as soon as he sees him arrive. Jesus commands the demons to come out, and he sends them into a herd of swine, which drown. The reaction of the people was not one of awe but of fear, so Jesus left. When you become aware of the miracles of Jesus, do you run in fear or worship and adore? Your answer makes all the difference in your life.

June 26 – Third Sunday after Pentecost: Read Luke 9:51-62 In Luke 9, we find Jesus on his way to Jerusalem. Many he meets say, “I will follow you, but first I must take care of some business.” To follow Jesus implies forsaking security to go where he goes. Discipleship means the same thing today as then: Choose this day whom you will serve. As you reflect on this scripture this week, consider how you follow Jesus, not just in name but in your actions as well.

July 3 - Fourth Sunday after Pentecost: Read: Galatians 6:7-16 Galatians 6: 10 reads, “So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all...” What will you do for good this coming week? Write down three things that you will do to help God’s people.

July 10 – Fifth Sunday after Pentecost: Read Psalm 25: 1-10 The Psalmist said, “O my God, in you I trust.” Take a few moments today to tell God about things that worry you and any problems you may have. Tell God that you trust God to take care of you. Be quiet and listen for God’s voice. Remember your prayer of trust throughout the week.

July 17 – Sixth Sunday after Pentecost: Read Psalm 52 At the end of Psalm 52, the Psalmist tells God, “I will proclaim your name, for it is good.” Take a sheet of paper and fold it in half. On the outside, write “God is Good.” On the inside, write all the names that you can think of for God. Say each of these names out loud, adding after each name, “God is Good.”

July 24 – Seventh Sunday after Pentecost: Read Psalm 138 God wants us to praise God with all our heart. That is a lot of praising! Cut out a heart from a piece of paper then fill up the heart with words and phrases that tell of the wonderful things you believe about God. Tape the heart up somewhere where you will see it all week, reminding you to praise God with all your heart.

July 31 – Eighth Sunday after Pentecost: Read Luke 12:13-21 “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.” Choose some of your money or a possession and give it away to someone who needs it. Praise God that you are able to give away some of what you have.

Family Night, Thrive Middle School and Ignite High School Youth Groups are off for the summer.

Patient Care Bags

We have delivered a total of 448 bags to CAMC Behavioral Unit. Thank you for your help in giving comfort to these patients. But the need had increased this year, and funds are needed to be able to continue to supply the bags. Monetary donations are preferable due to the specific nature of the size and brand of the items that must be used for the bags. Donations can be made to Kathy Barnes. If donating with a check, please list Patient Care Bags on the memo line.

Thank you!
